

HOME RULE IN THE COMMONS.

THE TORIES RAISE ANOTHER RUGABOO OVER THE BILL.

They Are Afraid the Constitutional Bill Will Turned into a Military Force—Mr. Gladstone Willing to Provide All Safeguards.

LONDON, June 1.—In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Labouchere, Mr. St. John, and Mr. St. John, addressed a series of questions to the Government with the view of obtaining definite information as to whether the Foreign Office had authorized Sir Gerald Portal to proclaim a British protectorate in Uganda.

Mr. Edward Grey, Under Secretary to the Foreign Office, replied in reply to Mr. Labouchere, in reference to Mr. Labouchere's question, that the Government had no intention of sending a military force to Uganda.

Mr. Labouchere, in reply to Mr. St. John, stated that the Government had no intention of sending a military force to Uganda.

TOWNSEND IS INSANE.

The Man Who Wanted to Kill Gladstone Will Go to an Asylum.

LONDON, June 1.—William Townsend, who was arrested on a charge of having discharged a pistol in Downing street, but really on suspicion of intent to murder Prime Minister Gladstone, and who was subsequently charged with having sent to Mr. Gladstone a letter threatening to take his life, has been found to be insane.

The doctors called upon to testify as to Townsend's mental condition concurred in the opinion that his insanity was of the chronic type, and that he was incapable of being easily lapsed into insanity, after which he was ignorant of and irresponsible for his actions.

The Judge thought that Townsend had become excited through reading about, pending the case in the newspapers, and that his insanity was of the chronic type.

THE KEMIRA BANK FAILURE.

A Part of Mayor Robinson's Overdrafts Made Good by the Bank's Securities.

ELMIRA, June 1.—New developments in the failure of the Elmira National Bank, and the subsequent assignment of Mayor D. C. Robinson came to light to-day, and they were of a nature to greatly please the bank depositors, who have been waiting so anxiously to know what they were to receive.

Mayor Robinson was to receive $125,000, of which $114,000 was in overdrafts. This was the condition of affairs when Bank Examiner Gathell took charge of the concern. It is now rumored that Col. Robinson got a hint from the examiners that a certain portion of the overdraft must be made good to avoid trouble, and that the result was a trip to New York by the Colonel, and the subsequent return from there of a batch of securities.

The securities were of a nature to greatly please the bank depositors, who have been waiting so anxiously to know what they were to receive.
